

The Hispanic Leadership Council of Pinellas, the InterCultural Advocacy Institute, the Juvenile Welfare Board, Empath Health, St. Petersburg College, and Subway

Present the Annual Diversity Conference

Embracing Our Changing Community: Cultivating Civility

Friday, July 28, 2017

8:30a.m. - 4:00p.m.
St. Petersburg College
2465 Drew Street, ES 104
Clearwater, FL

This conference will explore the role of civility in developing a healthy and positive environment at work and in the community. Conference topics will focus on: promoting civility as well as defining incivility, identifying its causes and consequences, practicing strategies that inspire positive interactions, and developing positive responses to hostile encounters.

Featured Speakers include:

*Ashley Brundage, Vice President of Diversity and Inclusion, PNC Bank
PNC Bank*

*Dr. LaSonya Moore
University of South Florida*

*Jeff Summers & Debbie Muno, Red Diamond Solutions
Genos Authorized Distributor – North America*

*Joanie Read, M.A.
Organizational and Talent Development Officer
Pinellas County- HR*

*Deborah Grassman, ARNP
Founder Opus Peace Non-Profit Organization*

$30.00/General Registration $35.00/If requesting CEUs/Credit Hours to be determined

Registration includes a complimentary light breakfast and a sandwich box for lunch.*

Sandwich selections will include turkey, ham, or veggies and available on a first come first-served basis, the day of the conference.

For more information and to pay via Credit Card register at:

<http://bit.ly/2quPjYC>

Check payments should be mailed with attached registration form to:

*St. Petersburg College
ATTN: Workforce Institute –Conferences
P.O. Box 13489
St. Petersburg FL 33733-3489
727-341-4772*

For questions, please contact Charly Quiñones at: Quinones.Charly@SPCollege.edu